

About the Instructor:

Gregory J. Harlin began his career as a Patrolman for the City of Beacon, New York Police Department in 1973 and served as the Detective- in- charge of the Juvenile/Community Relations Division before becoming a New York State Trooper. He joined the New York State Police as a Uniformed Trooper in 1978 and rose to the rank of Senior Investigator. He has worked Undercover Narcotics Operations between 1983 through 1986 and was assigned as the Assistant Group Supervisor of the Cali Cartel Enforcement Unit between 1989 through 1991. He was also assigned to Criminal Investigation Units in both Troop "F" and Troop "K."

On November 30, 2000, Greg retired as a Senior Investigator from the New York State Police, where his last assignment was the Bureau of Criminal Investigation Training Coordinator. He was responsible for the development, implementation and generation of numerous training initiatives pertaining to Criminal, Narcotic and specialized investigation units of the New York State Police. Three key training initiatives developed by Greg are his "Interview & Interrogation program, Courtroom Demeanor and Testimony program and the Office Safety - Dealing with Problem Individuals program."

Greg is a graduate of Dale Carnegie, University of Louisville Kentucky Juvenile Delinquent and Prevention School, Institute of Applied Science and is certified by the New York State Bureau of Municipal Police as a Master Instructor. He is well versed, experienced and successful in the use and application of Interview and Interrogation techniques and has trained numerous Local, County, State and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies throughout the United States, Canada and the Caribbean since 1995.

Greg is the recipient of three training awards in 1999; the New York State Police George M. Searle Memorial Award, the New York State Division of Parole Law Enforcement Recognition Award and the Hudson-Mohawk Chapter of the American Society for Training and development "Team Member Award."

Greg is a former Law Enforcement Training Coordinator for MAGLOCLIN and is the President and CEO of MURLIN Consultants. Greg has instructed for LAW-TEC Consultants, for MCTFT of St. Petersburg, FL, and is an instructor for the U.S. Army 1st Brigade Combat Team and the 1st Battalion, 87th Infantry, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, NY. Greg was a consultant for Rockefeller College, Albany, NY in the development of their "distant learning program in Interview & Interrogation Techniques" and was a consultant and interviewer for the HBO Special "Ask Dr. Baden Autopsy 10 - "Lady in the Lake" series.

Topics Covered:

This training for new and seasoned officers, focuses on the entire interactive interview to interrogation process as well as the initial violator interaction in order to determine whether further investigative action should be undertaken.

The use of language, non-verbal cues and psychological mind set are all factors involved in an individual's pre-determined conscious and/or uncontrollable subconscious attempt to elude, evade, camouflage and protect oneself from detection of prior, current or future criminal behavior. This training also focuses on the behavioral interaction during the questioning period to determine "THE TIMING" for use of relevant issue questions by the interrogator.

COURSE:

- Understanding the role of the Interrogator
- Language usage of deceptive individuals
- Listening skills
- Non-verbal communication
- The questioning process
- Mind-set of a deceptive individuals
- Behavioral Indicators relating to Officer safety during traffic encounters
- Roadside & Pristine settings relating to the questioning process
- Tactics for successful disclosure development
